T. Rama Rao[2][3] from the perspective of his second wife, Lakshmi Parvati as well as Rao during his last days. It is co-directed by Ram Gopal Varma, and Agasthya Manju.[4] Plot The film is based on factual events related to NTR after Lakshmi Parvathi came into his life. NTR's love story intertwined with political conspiracies which unraveled at that time that led to his dethronement. It chronicles crucial events in NTR's life after he meets Telugu research scholar Lakshmi Parvathi, from his struggles as a widower to his remarriage and to the division of his political party the Telugu Desam Party. Cast P Vijay Kumar as N. T. Rama Rao Yagna Shetty as Lakshmi Parvathi Sritej as Nara Chandrababu Naidu Aninigi Rajasekar as Rama Subba Reddy VJ Balu as Balakrishna Swarnakanth as Devmeni Nehru Production On 4 July 2017, RGV announced through his YouTube channel that he would be directing NTR's biopic with the title RGV's NTR, in which Nandamuri Balakrishna was to act. Due to differences they both did two different movies on NTR. The film's title was later changed to Lakshmi's NTR. Casting After various speculation and rumours as to who would be cast in the lead roles, it was revealed that P Vijay Kumar[5] as N. T. Rama Rao, Sritej[6] as Nara Chandrababu Naidu and Yagna Shetty[7] as Lakshmi Parvathi would reprise their roles.[8] Soundtrack Lakshmi's NTRSoundtrack album by Kalyani MalikReleased2019Recorded2018GenreSoundtrackLabelMango MusicProducerKalyani MalikKalyani Malik chronology Ammammagarillu(2018) Lakshmi's NTR(2019) Music is composed by Kalyani Malik and released on Mango Music label. As RGV fought back against the EC and CBFC, the petitions against the release of the movie were filed in the Telangana High Court.[13] The HC after a thorough inquiry, directed that every individual has the right to express his feelings so the release of the movie cannot be stopped. Due to some Post production and Pre-release formalities it was rescheduled to release on 29 March 2019 in Telangana[14][15] and on 1 June in Andhra Pradesh. 'Weekend Cinema' released the movie overseas. Marketing First track 'Vennupotu'(Backstabbing) was released on 21 December 2018, which went on to make controversies. A case was filed by TDP MLA from Pithapuram S V S N Varma saying that it was aiming at Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh Nara Chandra Babu Naidu. So the High Court issued notices to censor board and producer of Lakshmi's NTR.[16][17][18] The second track 'Enduku (Why?)' was released on 8 January 2019, questioning why did NTR marry Lakshmi Parvathi.[19] On 18 January 2019, A teaser was released which gives a brief glance into the characters.[20] First official trailer was released on 14 February 2019, at 9:27 AM by Ram Gopal Varma on Valentine's Day signifying the love between NTR and Lakshmi Parvathi.[21][22][23] The third track 'Nee Uniki' song by S. P. Balasubrahmanyam was released on 23 February 2019.[24] Another song called 'Avasaram' sung by Wilson Herald was released on 7 March 2019, is a sad song how people around NT Rama Rao used to bow down for power and all the relationships were based on their needs.[25] Second official trailer was released on 8 March 2019.[26][27] Home media "Lakshmi's NTR ends up being yet another drama from RGV's factory which doesn't pack a punch despite its inherent drama".[30] The Times of India gave 2.5 out of 5 stars stating "Lakshmi's NTR does tell the story of an important and less talked about phase in the legendary actor-politician's life. But a good story doesn't always make for a good film".[31] Sify gave 2.5 out of 5 stars stating "Lakshmi's NTR that focused on later life of legendary actor and politician late NT Rama Rao is fairly faithful to the political events of 1989 to 1996. While the film paints Chandrababu Naidu as a villain in NTR's life, it also goes extra length to show Lakshmi Parvathi as a woman sans blemishes. It is an okay political movie with slow narration".[32] The Indian Express gave 1 out of 5 stars stating "Ram Gopal Varma needs to cultivate new tricks of storytelling, should he ever aspire to make a decent film again".[33] References ^ a b "2019ం పంపిణీ చేయబడిన తెలుగు సినిమాల జాబితా".
